

Are you a progressive thinking individual looking for an opportunity and a position with a funeral home that wants to challenge their employees in all aspects of their lives? If so, the Ogden Funeral Home located in the heart of Scarborough, Ontario is looking for just such an individual. We are family owned and operated celebrating over 70 years of service this year and are very excited about where we hope to be in the coming years ahead. We currently have a vacancy for a licenced funeral director with two to five years of experience to help us care for the diverse multicultural community that we serve. Your responsibilities will be challenging and will include working alongside a great group of multicultural staff. You will be applying your arranging and directing skills on a daily basis along with some embalming as is required to care for our community that is comprised of people from all different walks-of-life, cultures and varied religious beliefs and customs; some new to Canada and others established for many years. We are currently using Mortware as our funeral home management system so any computer skills will be a definite asset. Our goal is to help you grow in your personal life and your career and in turn you will help us grow our business. Compensation will be relative to your experience and include a full benefit package. If you are up for the challenge and interested in learning more, send your resume to David Garvie (General Manager) at david@ogdenfh.com or fax to 416.298.4064 or by mail to 4164 Sheppard Avenue, East, Scarborough, ON M1S 1T3. We will indicate that your resume has been received and is being considered but only those candidates that we wish to interviewed will be contacted. All information will be kept confidential.
